

2020 Awards of Excellence National Awards

February 26, 2021

On behalf of National Bank Financial Wealth Management, it is our great pleasure that we announce that your Investment Advisor, Albert Brandstatter has received the National Award for “Social Commitment” as part of our Recognition of Excellence Program for 2020.

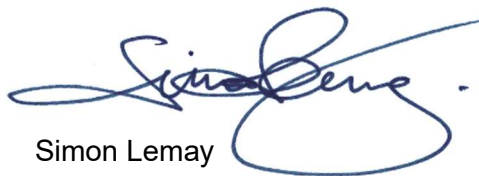

Albert is a person who, beyond his professional life, is actively involved with his community in order to make a difference in the lives of the people around him. Albert is a person who puts social commitment at the heart of his priorities and integrates these values into his professional practice.

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Albert for his exemplary work and dedication to making a positive impact in the lives of our loyal clients.

Yours sincerely,

Jonathan Durocher
President
